RECENT NEWS:

What about the Pagami fire?

So far the NFL has managed to escape unscathed by this unprecedented fire burning North of us in the BWCA wilderness. The Pagami Creek fire expanded from a lightning created manageable 3,000 acres to about 95,000 acres in less than a week. Keep up to date on the ongoing status here... \(read more\)

Sulfuric Acid runoff will threaten water and recreation in NE MN

Mining interests plan to dig precious metals out from under the precious natural beauty of the Superior National Forest. This short term jobs gain and infusion of mineral lease money to the state coffers portends a scary LONG TERM future for our backyards, the nationally coveted wilderness that this area provides and the local economy that depends on it for their survival. If your care about Minnesota's backyard roll up your sleeves and get busy. It's going to be a hard fight... \(read more\)

OUR MISSION:

To offer a peaceful and relaxing retreat from the demands of daily life. Our commitment is to continue to preserve and care for this pristine, wild corner of the planet. We believe the NFL's accessibility, tall pines, absence of motorized vehicles on trails and the abundant snowfall will make for an experience you won't find in many other places. We invite you to be our guests here soon.
